

How to get to school from JR Shibuya Station

The Naganuma School is about a 15-minute walk from Shibuya Station where many trains and buses stop, making it an easily accessible station. To get to our school, go out from the south exit of JR Shibuya Station, cross a large pedestrian bridge structure, which you can see on the left, walking all the way to the farthest end (the south-west corner), and walk straight along a wide street (sloping road). After a walk of about 10 minutes you will see our school on your left hand side.
