FAQ

Q . Is it possible to communicate with other participants in the guesthouse even though there are only single rooms?

A . Arrangements will be made so that all participants of the summer course will stay on the same floor. Participants get to spend time together such as having meals in the dining room and watching television.

Q . How are the floors allocated for males and females?

A . The 2nd-4th floors are for both male and female while 5th-8th are female-only floors. For the summer course, participants will stay on the 2nd-4th floors. You can request to stay in the female-only floor if there are empty rooms there.

Q . Should I be concerned that meals are not provided?

A . There is no need to worry as participants usually go to a nearby supermarket or convenience store to buy food, cook on their own or go out for meals together. However, please prepare your own expenses for food and meals.

Q . Is futon provided?

A . Clean futon and beds are provided in every room. There is no need to bring any blanket or towel blanket along. These are included in the accommodation fees.

Q . Is there a place to do laundry?

A . The washing machines provided in the common space can be used for free. There is no need to bring any laundry detergent along as you can get them at a cheap price at nearby drug stores. You can hang and dry your clothings at the common space or your room. However, if you wish to use the clothes dryer, please note that it costs 100 yen/30 minutes.

Q . Is internet provided?

A . LAN and Wi-Fi service are provided. However, participants need to bring their own laptops.

Q . If I have a guest visiting during my stay in the guesthouse, can he/she stay there too?

A . Guests can stay in the guesthouse, but they have to pay an additional fee of 2200 yen per person per day. (Reservation is needed)

Q . Can I extend my stay before or after the summer course?

A . Yes, you can stay for up to one month (30 days) from the day you arrive in Japan without extra charges. (Reservation is needed)

Q . Is there an appointed pickup time and airport?

A . A specific pickup airport and time will be appointed for each country.

Q . Can I arrive early before the starting date of the program, or leave later after the end of the program?

A . Yes, you can. However, please note that there will be no pick-up service from the airport to the guesthouse or vice versa.
